Gifts for the Techie

TIME'S UP

A new take on eco-design brings Bedol's water powered alarm clock, a perfect green gift for the holiday season. Simply add water and watch the clock work for four weeks, foregoing the need for batteries. Find it at www.bedolwhatsnext.com. $29.

SAVVY SHOPPER

Never again will you have to deal with forgetting what to buy at the grocery store or buying items you don't need with the SmartShopper electronic grocery list organizer. This voice-activated software mounts on any wall and once you've dictated your needs, the machine will categorize and print out your list. Visit SmartShopperUsa.com to order. $99.99.

LAPTOP OF LUXURY

The bold new Vaio CW series features compact notebooks in five trendy colors. Now you can have the ability to watch movies in stunning High Definition with the Vaio's blu-ray disc player. Measuring 14 inches diagonally, this computer gives you a portable and convenient entertainment system. Available at Sony Style, Palm Beach Gardens and Sonystyle.com. $780.

SWEET RIDE!

The hearts of kids (or kids at heart) will melt when they see these whimsical cupcake cars zip around parks and sidewalks (at a safe speed of 7 mph). Dressed in different flavors (choose from peppermint, blueberry and chocolate), they will surely bring sweet memories for the entire family. For more information call 1.877.9NM.GIFT. $25,000.
